

Course Hosts Notes

These notes are designed to assist the Course Host in facilitating The Bible Course by providing an overview and key information for each session. We've included some further ideas, suggestions and tips to help your course run smoothly and enhance the experience for everyone who attends.

Preparation checklist for each session:

- Refreshments and food options
You might like to enhance your Bible Course by offering refreshments. Tea and coffee are always appreciated and you might like to explore our ideas for Bible food tasters or more adventurous options that tie in with the theme of the session. We suggest making an extra effort for session 1 as a launch event for the whole course. Encourage everyone to come along and see if the course is for them.
- Sound and Vision
Being able to see and hear the films are key to the success of your course. You will need to consider the size and requirements of your group and project the films appropriately. A smaller home group should be fine with a good quality TV. A larger group may require a video projector, screen and speakers. Viewing angles, comfort and appropriate volume are key issues that need to be considered.
- Room set up
Consider the room that you plan to use and make sure the lighting, temperature and seating/viewing angles are comfortable for everyone to minimise distractions during the course.
- Spare manuals, pens and Bibles
Have some pens and a few spare Course manuals available in case someone forgets to bring theirs. And for those who don't have a copy, it would be helpful to offer copies of the Bible in a modern translation. The Course uses the English Standard Version but other translations are also fine (e.g. New International Version).
- Recommended Resources
In the back of the manual, we've provided a Recommended Reading list for people who would like to take their exploration of the Bible further. If possible, why not have some copies of these books and resources available to borrow or to buy.
- Prayer
In all your preparations, do remember to pray for each person attending the course. Pray that they will enjoy the course, connect well with other people and grow in confidence with the Bible.

Discussion-starter Questions:

For each session we've included an optional question to get conversation going before the first teaching video. These are especially useful if your group are new to each other. From session 2 onwards, you could also begin by asking someone to give a ONE MINUTE recap of the last session. From session 3 onwards, this could include drawing The Bible Course storyline on a flipchart and mentioning the important events, characters and books so far. But make sure it is timed to just one minute! We have given some suggestions for the content for each recap below.

Personal Reflection time:

At the end of each session, we have provided space for Personal Reflection (suggested 10 mins). This gives an opportunity to reflect on the content of the session as a whole and the key verse of Scripture given in the manual. We suggest allowing 5 minutes to reflect on the key verse and to write down in the space allotted in the manual something that has encouraged and challenged you. Then allow 5 minutes in pairs or triplets to share some of those personal reflections and to pray together. You might also suggest that everyone commits to memorising the key verse of Scripture over the coming week.

Daily Readings:

The Daily Readings provided at the end of each chapter of the manual aim to establish a personal rhythm of reading the Bible throughout the week. The daily readings cover some of the key moments in the section of the Bible story that will be referred to in the following session. We have found that when guests participate in the daily readings they get so much more from The Bible Course as a whole. So we want to encourage you to make this a priority. Why not set up a digital group (e.g. social media/text/email) for your course and send the daily reading Scripture reference as a prompt each day and invite people to comment on what they are learning and experiencing through the daily readings.

Welcome & Introduction (3 mins)

Reassure those who might be a bit apprehensive that the course is accessible and enjoyable for everyone! Ensure everyone has a copy of the course manual. Give an overview of the session structure.

Q: What's your favourite book or film and why?

Video Part 1 (17 mins)

Discussion Time (25 mins)

Video Part 2 (17 mins)

Personal Reflection (10 mins)

Key Verse: 'All Scripture is inspired [or breathed out] by God.' (2 Timothy 3.16)

Refreshments

As this is the first session, we recommend providing a good selection of appetising tasters to make a great first impression!

You could arrange a tapas-style selection of Bible foods from the various suggestions given for each session below and provide a label that briefly explains the food's significance in the Bible (e.g. fruit; breads; lamb; fish; honey; wine). This will create some anticipation for all that is to come!

Wrap Up

- In summary: the Bible is a library of books, divided into two Testaments – Old and New. Together they form one story that centres on Jesus Christ. The Bible Course will show how all the books, characters and events form one BIG story and give tools and skills to apply it to our lives.
- Daily Readings on p.23 of The Bible Course manual. To get the most out of the course, it is vital that we have a go at the daily readings. They will really help as the readings cover some key passages for next session. Does everyone have access to the Bible in a modern translation? Does anyone need to use an audio Bible instead? How can we encourage each other to do the readings and share what we are learning through the week?
- Next week we begin with the Bible story – starting with the first book, Genesis, and considering the themes of creation and covenant. See you then!

Session 2

CREATION & COVENANT

In this session, we explore the following key themes:

- The creation account in Genesis
- The fall
- The flood
- The Tower of Babel
- The call of Abraham
- The theme of covenant

Video Part 2 (17 mins)

Personal Reflection (10 mins)

Key Verse: 'If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.' 2 Corinthians 5.17

Refreshments

As this session starts with Genesis and the story of Adam and Eve, you might like to offer a variety of fruits, e.g. figs linking to the fig leaves (Genesis 3.7) and pomegranates which featured in Solomon's Temple as symbols of the goodness of creation (1 Kings 7.17-22).

Wrap Up

- In summary: Genesis is the first book of the Bible. As an ancient text, it still provides the best explanation of all the beauty and tragedy in our world.
- Reminder about Daily Readings on p. 41 of The Bible Course manual.
- Next week we explore themes of Exodus and the Promised Land.

Video Part 2 (17 mins)

Personal Reflection (10 mins)

Key verse: 'Everyone who sins is a slave to sin ... [But] if the Son sets you free you will be free indeed!' John 8.34, 36 NIV

Refreshments

To tie in with the Exodus event, give a taste of some foods from the Passover meal: matzoh or flat bread (most supermarkets stock it); celery, sprigs of herbs dipped in saltwater, a taste of lamb, a hard-boiled egg and a sip of red wine (if appropriate). In addition, the Promised Land 'flowed with milk and honey' and contained huge grapes! See Numbers 13.23, 27.

Wrap Up

- In summary: Through a mass exodus, God delivered Israel from slavery, into the Promised Land. Today, we can experience true liberation through Jesus Christ.
- Reminder about Daily Readings on p.59 of The Bible Course manual.

Give a one-minute recap of the story so far. Draw the storyline on a flip chart and plot the main events and characters so far: Creation, fall, flood; Covenant with Abraham; Joseph down to Egypt; Israel enslaved for 400 years; Moses and the exodus got them out; Joshua led them in to the Promised Land.

Personal Reflection (10 mins)

Key Verse: 'Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.' Proverbs 3.5-6

Refreshments

Fresh bread, honey and dips make a good link to this session. Ruth gleaned barley from Boaz's field and ate bread dipped in wine-vinegar with him (Ruth 2.14). Bethlehem, where the story of Ruth is set, means 'house of bread'. Equally, David ate the sacred shew-bread from the Tabernacle (1 Samuel 21.6). In addition, Samson (one of the Judges) killed a lion and later found honey in its carcass. See if the guests can crack his riddle while they enjoy some honey (Judges 14.5-14).

Wrap Up

- In summary: God raised up judges and kings to lead Israel. They were anointed with the Holy Spirit and foreshadowed the coming Messiah.
- Reminder about Daily Readings on p. 79 of The Bible Course manual.
- Next week we explore the theme of Exile and the prophets.

Session 5

EXILE & THE PROPHETS

In this session, we explore the following key themes:

- The divided Kingdom

Refreshments

Revelation reveals themes of judgement – so serve up something hot and spicy; and new creation with the tree of life reappearing – so serve up fresh fruits like figs and pomegranates to echo the first creation.
